

What's On Today!

Anniversary
of the 2008
National Apology

TANDANYA

NATIONAL ABORIGINAL
CULTURAL INSTITUTE INC.

Friday, 13th February

Time	Event	Where
11.30am	Screening of The Apology	Theatre
12.00 - 12.30pm	Cultural presentation &amp; performance  Torres Strait Islander Dance with Eddie Peters	Theatre
12.45 - 1.40pm	Film - Kanyini  Kanyini is a Pitjantjatjara world meaning interconnectedness; to care for, to support, to nurture and protect. Kanyini, the film, contains great beauty and wisdom, and offers an accessible account of what has happened to Australia's First People since the arrival of the white man. Based on his own personal journey, Bob Randall, who lives beside Uluru in Central Australia, tells a story that is not only of one man and his people, but the story of the human race.	Theatre
1.45pm	Screening of The Apology	Theatre

Please place a donation in the box immediately on your right as you enter the gallery.
Thank you!